

Following Jesus is not just for Christians.

The way taught by Jesus is not a particularly religious activity.

Instead, it is a decisively human activity transcending all religions.

It is not a way of believing;
it is a way of living.

It is centered in human love for one another and is focused on compassionate action toward those in need.

Kurt Struckmeyer, A Conspiracy of Love